Proceedings of the meeting of Registrars held on 11.01.2019 at 11.30 A.M. at Raj Bhavan, Patna under the Chairmanship of Principal Secretary to Hon’ble Chancellor.

Present – As per Annexure

A meeting of the Registrars of Universities of Bihar was convened under the Chairmanship of Principal Secretary to Hon’ble Chancellor. Principal Secretary to Hon’ble Chancellor, Shri Vivek Kumar Singh, in his initial remarks stated that implementation of University Management Information System (UMIS), engagement of Guest Faculty, NAAC Accreditation of Colleges, regular conduct of Pension Adalat, Updation of University Website etc. were formidable challenges for the University.

Status of compliance of the decisions taken in the last meeting of Registrars held on 24.08.2018:

I. It was found that Universities have showed slackness in the implementation of UMIS. Very few Universities were found to be in a position to implement UMIS by 15.02.2019.

II. Regarding uploading photographs of B.Ed. institutions on B.Ed. Post and online reporting, it was found that University needed to tone up the process of disaffiliation of 39 erroneous and defaulting B.Ed. colleges, which have failed to upload photographs on B.Ed. Post and furnish necessary information.
Some Registrars have failed to monitor uploading of data and proper photographs of B.Ed. colleges on B.Ed. Post.

III. The decision of the last meeting to take immediate necessary steps for apportionment of assets and liabilities between three newly created Universities namely, Patliputra University, Patna, Purua University, Purua and Munger University,
Munger with their parent / old University, namely Magadh University, Bodhgaya, BNMU, Madhepura and TMBU, Bhagalpur were not fully complied. Registrars of concerned Universities were directed to resolve the issues of apportionment, as decided in the meeting of State Government, at the earliest, and submit compliance report by 31st January, 2019.

IV. Resolution of last meeting to update the website of the Universities on regular basis was not complied by many Universities. Some Universities have even failed to upload the name of approved courses and list of Affiliated Colleges on their websites.

V. Review of attendance of teachers on the basis of Biometric Attendance System was not complied by most of the Universities. Registrars were directed to submit the names of three teachers and other categories of staffs who have spent minimum hours & day in the college for the months November, 2018, December, 2018 and January, 2019 as per the record of Biometric Attendance System.

Registrars were directed to ensure compliance of the resolution taken in the meeting on 24.08.2018 and submit compliance report by 31st January, 2019.

After reviewing the status of compliance of previous meeting, Agenda-wise, following points were discussed,

1. Engagement of Guest Faculty. It was noticed that most of the Universities did not engage Guest Faculty. Following decisions were taken;

B. Ph.D. certificates of 2009 should be examined carefully.

C. Information should be received about the year of exam & marks obtained at the Matriculation, Intermediate, Graduation and Post-Graduation level. Certificates of NET qualification and Ph.D. should also be examined.

D. It was decided to consider having Domain Specialization Analysis of Guest Faculty for proper assessment of their strengths & weaknesses.

E. It was proposed by certain Universities that retired Teachers of Constituent Colleges, upto the age of 70 years, may also be considered for selection as Guest Faculty.

2. Status of implementation of UMIS :- For implementation of UMIS, following decisions were taken –

A. It was decided to conclude implementation of UMIS by 5th February, 2019.

B. While finalizing tender and selecting agencies, total transparency should be followed/maintained.

C. Delay in implementation of UMIS by Universities would imply, they were not interested in selecting agencies in a transparent manner.

D. If any serious complaint was received against the University, an enquiry may be started against the erring University.
3. NAAC Accreditation of Colleges

   A. Universities were requested to submit Self Study Report (SSR) and Internal Quality Assessment Report (IQAR) for NAAC Accreditation of Colleges by March, 2019.
