Regarding direction to acting Vice-Chancellor not to take policy decisions.

Sir,

With respect to subject mentioned above, I am directed to inform that Hon'ble Chancellor, after due consideration, has been pleased to order that the Vice Chancellors of the Universities of Bihar, who are appointed as acting Vice-Chancellor, in any University of Bihar should not to take any policy decisions and rather should engage themselves in day-to-day routine work.

Following functions of Vice-Chancellors will be construed as policy decisions:-

1. Convening and presiding over the meeting of Selection Committee /any other Promotion Committee.
2. Convening meeting of Senate, Syndicate and Academic Council.
3. New appointments / recruitment process.
4. Taking decisions which have financial implications .
5. Initiating new constructions work and floating fresh tender.
6. Other actions which may be categorised as policy decisions of the University.

It is further, requested that if, in the interest of University, policy decisions are required to be taken, then prior approval of Hon'ble Chancellor should be taken

Therefore, you are requested to comply with the above order.

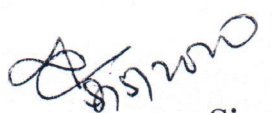

By the order of Hon'ble Chancellor,
Sd/-
